THE FAIR

The second day of the forty-third annual Lamoille Valley Fair opened very auspiciously, the weather being fine, and everything points to one of the most successful events in the history of the fair association.

While there was no racing or stage program yesterday there was a good first day attendance and much interest was shown in the large exhibits in Floral Hall and the judging of the premium goods in this department. The judging of cattle, sheep and swine was also an interesting feature and took considerable time as the exhibits were large.

The midway is crowded as usual and the display at Floral Hall is about the same as in years previous, there being an extra good display in the art, cookery and preserving departments.

The entries in the poultry department is not quite up to the usual number but the exhibit is one of the finest ever seen on the ground.

There is an exceptionally large entry of horses in the premium classes, including some fine Morgans and draft horses. The judging of these takes place this morning.

Cattle Show Big Feature

The judging of dairy cattle by Hon. Andrew Elliott of Gault, Ont., which occurred yesterday afternoon proved most interesting and instructive and was witnessed by a large number of progressive Lamoille County farmers and others, the increased attendance at this event showing a growing interest in this most important department of the Fair. This is Mr. Elliott's third visit to the Lamoille Valley Fair in this capacity and his instructive demonstrations yesterday emphasized the wisdom of the management in securing his services again this year.

The showing of registered stock even surpasses the record breaking shows of the past few years and all who attend the Fair today and tomorrow will see the entire show, which is well worth the price of admission. Among the notable exhibits from out of town are the famous herd of Dutch belted cattle, including upwards of twenty head, shown by O. A. Leonard of Tolland, Conn., thirty-five head of Holsteins by Willey Bros. of Cambridge, Devons, Holsteins and Durhams from George Cary's St. Johnsbury stock farm, a handsome exhibit of Ayrshires from A. D. Cutting's Cambridge herd, fourteen Herefords shown by A. J. Higgins of St. Johnsbury and eleven Jerseys from the herd of Grapes & Sons, also of St. Johnsbury.

Among the larger exhibits in this vicinity are twelve head from W. G. Baker's Fairview Farm, seven from E. M. Houston's Countess Dale Farm in Stowe, about a dozen from R. A. Wells herd of Stowe, eleven shown by Ernest Mudgett of Johnson and six from C. F. Smith's herd. J. F. Thomas & Son are exhibiting sixteen head of Guernseys and Jerseys. There are about eighteen pairs of oxen and steers on the ground. The entire exhibit of cattle includes about 300 head.

Great Racing Promised

Over one hundred race horses have been entered for the events today and tomorrow and everything points to some real contests in the different classes. Some of the fastest horses ever started on this track are scheduled to start and among the well-known drivers who are here with some good ones are W. J. Utton of the Newport Stock Farm and Fred Pickles of Derby, who has a string of nine, with which he is making the circuit. The races will start today at 1:30. They are the 2:30 class, trot or pace, purse $250; 2:24 class trot, purse $250; 2:16 class trot or pace, purse $250. The race money this year is $150 larger than usual and as Chester F. Pike of Windsor is here again as a starter the events may be expected to be pulled off satisfactorily and on schedule time.

Music is furnished this year by the Jeffersonville Cornet Band, Charles LaBounty leader, and the reputation of this band is a guarantee of the same high class music that has been a feature of the Fairs for a number of years. Free concerts will be given at 12:30 today and tomorrow. The stage show this year is given by the Kimura Japs, the Dalbeane Co., bicycle artists, and the Aerial Mitcheles, each group giving two separate and distinct acts.

E. A. Smalley is superintendent of the cattle and horse departments, M. A. Jenkins of Bradford has charge of the poultry and John Gray of Hyde Park is superintending the swine classes. Captain S. B. Waite fills the position of Marshal to perfection.

All Schools Postponed

All the schools in town in common with the other towns in the State, have been postponed until Sept. 18. For Representative

Elmer Smalley, as a Republican, and Geo. Thomas, as a Democrat, have filed their names to go on the primary ballots for Representative. While these are the only names that will be printed on the primary ballot there will be space for writing in of any other name. W. M. Sargent, whose name was suggested last week, positively declines to have his name used. He is an earnest supporter of Mr. Smalley. Geo. Thomas, the Democratic nominee, is a young farmer, a member of the Grange and a U. V. M. graduate.

F. C. Luce Co. Store Sold

Herbert Farnham and Burton Luce of Waterbury have purchased the F. C. Luce Co. store, which has been managed by W. F. Benson since Mr. Luce purchased the same of the N. B. Blair estate, and have taken possession.

The following concerning the members of the new firm appeared in the last issue of the Waterbury Record:—There is general regret among the people that Messrs. Farnham and Luce are to leave town and make Morrisville their permanent home. It takes from the community two young business men who are held in high esteem by all. They understand the business and will give the people of Morrisville a store that will not have its equal in Lamoille County. The many friends of Messrs. Luce and Farnham will wish them the best success possible in their new business venture.

Mr. Luce is a son of F. C. Luce and Mr. Farnham has been employed in the Waterbury store for several years. Mr. Farnham will soon move his family to Morrisville.

HYDE PARK

The McFarland family have returned from their camp at Caspian Lake.

Mrs. Gale of Westford and Master Allen Chase of Brandon are visiting at Page Ufford's.

It is expected that work will be resumed at an early date upon the new library building.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Brooks and daughter Caroline are visiting relatives and friends in New Hampshire.

Mrs. Ralph Kelsey and children from St. Johnsbury spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nichols.

A. E. Davison and wife of Brooklyn, N. Y., and H. E. Deats and wife of Flemington, N. J., who are making an auto trip through the White Mountains and other New England points, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lewis a part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Thonet and C. Blair of Holyoke, Mass., came Sunday for a week's visit at Moses Goodhue's. They came in Mr. Thonet's Overland touring car. They will also motor to Franklin county before returning to Holyoke.

The carpenters have finished work on Clark's building, the Maxfield store. Decided improvement has been made in and on the same and in its new paint represents a fine appearance. Mr. Clark expects to open his store about Sept. 10. Homer Lanpher is to clerk for him.

The marriage of Archie Pratt and Miss Stella Ruth Macomber took place at noon Monday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Macomber of Underhill, Rev. Mr. Sturges officiating. The couple are now "at home" on their farm on the Wolcott road. Best wishes.

The last number of the Vermonter has a very interesting article, "Roger W. Hubbard—Citizen," written by its editor, C. R. Cummings. It is well-written and contains a picture of the new county buildings, Roger's residence and a striking picture of Roger sitting in his office in deep meditation.

The only name filed with the Town Clerk for position on the Primary ballots is that of Dennis Finnegan, who consents to have his name used as a Democrat for Representative. This will be the only name printed on the ballot, but there will be spaces for the writing in of any name in the Republican, or Progressive column, as well as in the Democratic column.

Closes the Most Successful Clearance Sale We Have Ever Had

It is gratifying to us to see how much faith the people have in this store and in the merchandise and values it offers. It makes us more enthusiastic in our business and encourages us to try and keep at all times the most complete assortment in every line of wearing apparel and to offer the best values that can be obtained, even at a big sacrifice in our profits.

At this time we have something left in most every line which we wish to close out if possible at a fraction of their real value, so we will not have to carry them over to another season. So if you are looking for the biggest bargains you can find in the line of clothing, you had better come during this week while you can get them here.
